Empowering The Youth — resources from LWR

Sweet Justice. (Coming Soon!) A curriculum designed especially for junior and senior high students. Youth come to a more comprehensive understanding of Fair Trade chocolate and the importance of Fair Trade as it relates to their Christian faith.

LWR Chocolate Project Educational Leaflet. Give one out with each bar to introduce the injustices of the cocoa industry, benefits of Fair Trade, and the co-op where LWR Chocolate Project cocoa is grown.

Top Six Reasons to Buy Fair Trade Chocolate. Give this catchy half-sheet flyer to youth and others to emphasize the justice of Fair Trade, or download and customize a version for your group at lwr.org/chocolate.

LWR Chocolate Project Bulletin Insert. A reproducible bulletin insert that will give your whole parish a primer on Fair Trade chocolate. Great to use on a Fair Trade Sunday.

Elements of Worship. Liturgy, music and prayers for justice that are perfect for a Fair Trade Sunday.

LWR Chocolate Project Brochure. An introduction to the LWR Chocolate Project, and ordering info!

LWR Chocolate Project Poster. Advertise your chocolate sale!

Other Resources. Visit lwr.org/fairtrade to download a variety of other resources, including Fair Trade and Human Rights, Fair Trade and Women, and Fair Trade and Peace.

Setting them Loose — using the creativity of the youth group

Fair Trade Temple Talk. Have youth write their own Fair Trade temple talk to educate the congregation on the Sunday of your sale. And maybe the Sunday before, too!

Fair Trade Sunday. Encourage the youth to plan a Fair Trade Sunday or Fair Trade Youth Sunday for your church! Consider some of the following options, and use your own ideas:

Sermon. Youth write and deliver a sermon on faith and Fair Trade.

Liturgy, Music and Prayers. Choose liturgy, music and prayers focused on issues of justice.

Bulletin Inserts. Be sure they're in every bulletin!

LWR Fair Trade Fair. Sell coffee and handcrafts along with your chocolate!

Fair Trade Care Packages. Create Fair Trade care packages including chocolate, coffee, tea, and cocoa for college students during exam times. Be sure to include an educational leaflet.
